“I have been an investor and business person for over 30 years, and incorporate my personal experiences into the investment advice I offer for the benefit of my customers”

Hi, I'm Wolfgang. I've been with Westpac as an Investment Adviser for nearly four years. In addition to this, I have over 10 years working in various other roles within the finance industry.

I have a Bachelor of Commerce degree, and have also completed a Graduate Diploma in Business Studies, specialising in Personal Financial Planning.

In my spare time I enjoy travelling abroad, experiencing other countries and different cultures. I enjoy reading not only books on economics and financial markets, but also good thrillers or spy novels.

I'd like to meet with you, to give me a chance to listen to what you want out of your investments and allow me to put together a plan that can make that happen.
